Harrington Brown and Sansone Group Partner to represent Property Owners in Central/Southeast U.S. and Florida for Management, Leasing and Dispositions

(CHICAGO, IL – December 28, 2010) – Harrington Brown LLC, the Chicago-based commercial real estate services and investment firm headed by David R. Brown, has partnered with St. Louis-based Sansone Group to represent institutional property owners and financial institutions for the receivership, management, leasing and disposition of properties located the Central/Southeast region of the U.S., including Florida.

Since its formation in 2009, Harrington Brown has worked with private equity funds, institutional investors and financial institutions to assist with strategic management of their property portfolios, teaming up with local and regional management firms. According to David R. Brown, president of Harrington Brown, LLC, “it made perfect sense for us to form an affiliation with Sansone Group since their professional team has such great knowledge of the local markets and vast experience with management, leasing and disposition of retail, office, industrial and multifamily assets.”

According to Timothy G. Sansone, principal of Sansone Group, “we worked with David Brown starting almost seven years ago when he was CEO of ORIX Real Estate Capital and our firms had a relationship for development and property management. When David started his own company, we wanted to find ways to continue working together and this seemed like a great opportunity.”
